St. Joseph Parish is a Stewardship Parish. A Catholic Steward actively participates and is involved with parish ministries, each according to their time and talents. Continue to regularly pray the stewardship prayer. Help us to place You, our loving Creator, first in our lives by becoming more prayerful and more focused on loving and caring for our families and our neighbors in need. Help us to hear Your call to be good stewards of all Your gifts by sharing them to accomplish Your will, that is the coming of Your kingdom here on earth.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT - "Under the protection of St. Joseph, and ever grateful to the Capuchin Franciscan Friars, we strive to foster a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ through prayer, worship and the celebration of the Sacraments. We are dedicated to love and care for all God's people in their physical, educational and spiritual needs through the stewardship of time, talent and treasure."

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC PARISH GIFT

This months gift is the book Rediscovering Jesus by Matthew Kelly. At a time when so many people are spiritually disillusioned and searching for ways to live, love, work, and play that nurtures the soul rather than destroy it, Matthew Kelly, once again, delivers a powerful book that encourages us in our weariness, challenges us in our comfort, and invites us to rediscover the beautiful possibilities God places before us daily!

Grab your copy of Rediscover Jesus at one of the four entrances to the church.

Saint Michael the Archangel...
Defend us in battle, be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking for the ruin of souls. Amen

St. Joseph parish office provides a place to bring in all those religious items that you no longer need or want. Perhaps those items that belonged to your parents that you no longer know what to do with. These items, statues, rosaries, religious reading, candles, scapulars, CD's, etc, are placed in this room to share with others. Those items such as palms and broken items are disposed of in a respectful manner.

Pastor's Notes

"Burning Our Bridges"

Fr. Fred Gatschet

In Old Testament times a team of oxen and a plow were not only a sign of current wealth but also of future wealth. Not unlike the farmer of today with a new John Deere, the oxen and plow showed that a man had the wealth to buy them in the first place but that future wealth would be his through his use of them.

For this reason, in the first reading from 1 Kings, when Elisha kills his oxen and burns the wooden plow he had to cook the meat, he is definitely burning the bridge to his past as a farmer. Not only his current income, but all future income from his team and plow are now gone. He has completely cast his lot in life as a prophet and servant of God.

Jesus praises this in the Gospel today when He states: "To another he said, 'Follow me.' But he replied, 'Lord, let me go first and bury my father.' But Jesus answered him, 'Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.' And another said, 'I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home.' To him Jesus said, 'No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God.'"

The bottom line is that there comes a point in everyone's life where we can no longer "keep our options open" or "play the field." We have to make a decision which necessarily closes off a myriad of other options. When a man or woman gets married (s)he has necessarily chosen one spouse which precludes millions of other possible spouses. When a college student settles on a major, say business, that same student cannot at the same time study physics or English. When I followed through with what I was convinced to be a call from God to serve Him in the priesthood, walking through that door closed many others.

But once those decisions are made many other possibilities open up that would otherwise be unattainable. How can a man experience being a husband or a woman being a wife unless they are married and make that commitment? As a priest, my biggest frustration has been the many opportunities I have been offered to do teaching, writing, etc., and I have to pick one. But these opportunities would not be available to me as a layman.

What we see illustrated for us by Elisha cooking his oxen by burning his plow and Jesus warning us that "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God" is that life does not take on meaning and purpose until we make significant decisions that necessarily eliminate many options from our reach. This should not be hard to understand as we have all benefitted from those who have made such decisions, beginning with our parents.

We are certainly happier when we see through the big lie of the world that commitment is an obstacle to happiness.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Some conversion stories people tell are so profound and meaningful that they make you want to invent a story for yourself. Some of us have these type of stories to tell, but most of us can only tell stories of slowly coming into a greater maturity of faith over many years and many mistakes. I personally was baptized as an infant, grew up in the Church, and never experienced a time when I was fully the prodigal son. I have sinned quite often throughout my years, but I never drifted so far away where I needed that moment of truth to help me see the light.

However, that does not diminish the fact that I have been made new in Christ and I need to live in a way that leaves the old me behind. If you are like me, you must admit there are times when that former self comes into view. There are times when we fall into our sin to the point where no one would believe we were baptized disciples of Jesus. Thank God there is forgiveness through the sacraments. When we fall, we can always recover and be made new again.

So maybe it is not true that people like me don't have a profound conversion story. Maybe the truth is we simply have MANY conversion stories. As we continually strive to pick up our crosses and follow Him, we fall away and need to come back to Him. Each time, we have a new story. Each time, God's love and healing are profound. Each time, we have something new to tell.

The Legend Alvin "Al" Billinger

by Darrell S. Mudd

Just released is a book about a local St. Joseph parishioner, TMP Alum and Coach, Al Billinger. This is a story, a portrait of everything good about Americans who struggled through the Great Depression and became the heroes of the Greatest Generation during World War II. This is the story of a combat infantry veteran, devoted husband and father, post-war collegiate athletic, teacher, coach and mentor. A member of several Halls of Fame who treasured the simple pleasures of fishing and hunting with lifelong friends. This is the story of a man who left a legacy of devotion, perseverance, and faithfulness in the game of life. Those who were taught and coached by Al Billinger at his alma mater, St. Joseph's Military Academy, now Thomas More Prep-Marian Junior/High School, know what an extraordinary, and yes even legendary individual he was and the impact he had on everyone. This is a story worth telling. This book is available from the author Darrell S. Mudd at dswmudd@gmail.com or directly from Amazon.com. The author will be in Hays during the TMP-M homecoming to sell and sign books.
