The Reluctant Prophet Amos

Actually, all of God's prophets, apart from St. John the Baptist, were reluctant. Today, Amos tries to distance himself from the role of prophet by saying, "I was no prophet, nor have I belonged to a company of prophets; I was a shepherd and a dresser of sycamores. The LORD took me from following the flock, and said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel."

The first question is what exactly is a prophet? Unfortunately, many people think that prophets are more like soothsayers who have some kind of privileged knowledge about the future. This is not really true. Prophets: (1) Call people to conversion and repentance. (2) Read the signs of the time in light of what has been revealed to us by God. (3) Knowing what God has done and said in the past, the prophet then tells the people what they can expect God to do in the future.

In the New Testament, St. Paul equates prophecy with teaching. Given the roles of prophets in the Old and New Testaments, we should be able to not only recognize the prophetic voices among us, but also see ourselves as prophets. Immediately following our Baptism, we were all anointed on the crown of our head with Holy Chrism accompanied by the words, "As Christ was anointed Priest, Prophet, and King, so may you live always as a member of his body, sharing everlasting life." So we have all been anointed into the prophetic role of Jesus. What would that look like?

Back in April of 1999 we had the Columbine High School Massacre. Afterward any number of talking heads appeared on the various news channels tried to explain the horror...violent video games, uninvolved parents, etc. St. Theresa of Calcutta responded, "You do over a million abortions each year in your country. The only thing that should surprise you is that things like this don't happen more often." That is a prophetic statement.

When we warn young people of the dangers of drugs, alcohol, laziness, etc., we are acting as prophets. Like the prophets of old, we should not expect people to thank us when we try to set them straight. This never happened to the prophets of old. In fact, the proof of the correctness of our prophetic teaching will usually be the negative push-back that we get for speaking up in the first place!

Stewardship of Time and Talent

Since St. Joseph Parish is a Stewardship Parish. We send out Stewardship Renewal Forms every January and ask our parishioners to respond back letting us know if there are any changes to their information. We also ask them to please contribute to the parish through their gifts of Time, Talent and Treasure.

This year we received 64.4% of the parish responding to the Stewardship Renewal Forms. These forms are important to us as they are used to update all your information such as cell numbers, addresses and family members. They also tell us if people have moved to a different city. But, they don't tell us if you moved to a different parish. So, let us hear from you!

Stewardship Reflection

Our readings today remind us to live our lives in total surrender to God's care.

The Gospel recounts when Jesus instructs His twelve apostles to begin their missionary work two by two. He encouraged them to take very little — a walking stick and sandals.

If you can recall a time you packed for a trip, or even left the house for a day's travel, you might remember making a list or packing days in advance. We tend to pack so we know we will be comfortable.

If we extend this concept of "comfort" into other areas of our lives, we will most likely find a few instances where we ensure life is comfortable. It could be buying extra food at the grocery store, making sure we have the most updated technology, or even feeling safe in our bank accounts.

It is not bad to have extra food in the pantry or a new phone. And it isn't bad to save money. These things can be good when used properly.

But what if we are looking to these things for comfort, security or even happiness?

Imagine if Jesus approached you and said, "Go out and do my work, but you can only bring a walking stick and shoes." Would you be willing to surrender all the rest?

A key component of living out our call as Christian stewards is total surrender. It is trusting in God during our best moments and our hardest. It is looking to Him for security, comfort and happiness.

Reflect on the ways you might be looking for comfort in the things of this world. Tangibly find a way to become independent from that "thing" so that you can become more dependent on God.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

God our Father,

You are the source of life and every blessing.
All that we have comes from You. Help us to walk in your ways as faithful disciples of Jesus.

As good stewards of your many blessings teach us to receive your gifts gratefully,
cultivate them responsibly,
share them in justice and love with others, and return them with increase to You, our Father. We ask this through Christ our Lord, who came that we might have life, and have it abundantly.

Amen.

PRACTICING CATHOLIC Shake Off the Dust

Our kitchen floor is at least 35 years old, and it's the ugliest color to come out of the '80s. But it's a good, durable floor, and my husband, bless his heart, guards it like it was a finely finished hardwood imported from Brazil.

Every time the kids track mud and sand across its vinyl surface, he immediately gets down on his hands and knees and lovingly wipes the mess away. I'm too impatient to do this myself — we have kids, so we're going to have a dirty floor, is my attitude. But this is the hill upon which my husband dies. On hands and knees, scraping dirt off an almost 40-year-old floor, he is the silent, long-suffering sentry, and if it kills him, he will keep these floors pristine. He is Gandalf, and the dirt is the Balrog. You shall not pass.

"Shake the dust off your feet." This is what Christ tells his disciples to do when they — and his word — are rejected. Shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them. Why does he say that? It's not an act of dismissal. It's not a thumbed nose or a stuck-out tongue. No, it's an act of caution: Don't bring it with you. Leave it there.

When we walk through the world, we pick up a lot of dirt. Misguided notions, disordered priorities, habits, and desires that we never noticed until we realized they left a trail. We come into a situation intending to do what is right, but somehow it all goes sideways, and we walk away from it with detritus clinging to us in places we don't notice. They wouldn't listen. They'll see, we think. Oh, they'll see. They'll see how right I was. Pride and vengeance hitch a ride on the soles of our feet, and we track them all through the world.

What to do about this? You can be like me with my ugly old floor. You can shrug your shoulders and say, "It happens, I guess. I'm only human. I meant well."

But here's what would be better: be like my husband. Get down on your knees and get rid of the dirt. Stop the trail in its tracks.

"So they went off and preached repentance." — Mark 6:12
