18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds.
They all ate and were satisfied. - Mt 14:19c-20

St. Joseph Parish is a Stewardship Parish. A Catholic Steward actively participates and is involved with parish ministries, each according to their time and talents. Continue to regularly pray the stewardship prayer. Help us to place You, our loving Creator, first in our lives by becoming more prayerful and more focused on loving and caring for our families and our neighbors in need. Help us to hear Your call to be good stewards of all Your gifts by sharing them to accomplish Your will, that is the coming of Your kingdom here on earth.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT - "Under the protection of St. Joseph, and ever grateful to the Capuchin Franciscan Friars, we strive to foster a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ through prayer, worship and the celebration of the Sacraments. We are dedicated to love and care for all God's people in their physical, educational and spiritual needs through the stewardship of time, talent and treasure."

PASTOR'S NOTES

Sacrosanctum Concilium

The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, Vatican II, Series, Part 7

Fr. Brian Lager

8. In the earthly liturgy we take part in a foretaste of that heavenly liturgy which is celebrated in the holy city of Jerusalem toward which we journey as pilgrims, where Christ is sitting at the right hand of God, a minister of the holies and of the true tabernacle [22]; we sing a hymn to the Lord's glory with all the warriors of the heavenly army; venerating the memory of the saints, we hope for some part and fellowship with them; we eagerly await the Saviour, Our Lord Jesus Christ, until He, our life, shall appear and we too will appear with Him in glory [23].

9. The sacred liturgy does not exhaust the entire activity of the Church. Before men can come to the liturgy they must be called to faith and to conversion: "How then are they to call upon him in whom they have not yet believed? But how are they to believe him whom they have not heard? And how are they to hear if no one preaches? And how are men to preach unless they be sent?" (Rom. 10:14-15).

Therefore the Church announces the good tidings of salvation to those who do not believe, so that all men may know the true God and Jesus Christ whom He has sent, and may be converted from their ways, doing penance [24]. To believers also the Church must ever preach faith and penance, she must prepare them for the sacraments, teach them to observe all that Christ has commanded [25], and invite them to all the works of charity, piety, and the apostolate. For all these works make it clear that Christ's faithful, though not of this world, are to be the light of the world and to glorify the Father before men.

[22] Cf. Apoc. 21:2; Col. 3:1; Heb. 8:2.

[23] Cf. Phil. 3:20; Col. 3:4.

[24] Cf. John 17:3; Luke 24:27; Acts 2:38.

[25] Cf. Matt. 28:20.

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is the highest work of the whole Church, the Church Triumphant, the Church Suffering, and the Church Militant. It however, does not exhaust all the activity of the Christian life. We are then called from Mass to go into the world to perform "works of charity, piety, and the apostolate." The Mass is the driving force behind our work to bring the Gospel to all the ends of the earth. It is our mission, from which the word mass is derived, to go into the world and bring others to know God and form them also in the Christian life.

We gain our strength from the Holy Mass and reception of Holy Communion. Our desire for union with Jesus ought to be to bring others to know the one true God as well. The daily work of growing in virtue is the work of the Christian life to constantly grow in charity. St. Paul calls us "Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil." (Eph. 6:11). This armor is for the Church Militant to enter into the battle against sin and the temptations of the devil. The Eucharist is the food that nourishes our soul to have the perseverance in this battle. May we never take for granted the great gifts God has provided and may we always have grateful hearts for His most holy and loving presence.
